YOUR DEDICATED EQUINE PRACTICE IN SCOTLAND

Central Equine Vets - helping our clients' horses live long, happy and healthy lives.

Central Equine Vets is a first opinion, ambulatory (mobile) equine veterinary practice based in Edinburgh. The clinic provides a high quality service to horse, pony and donkey owners in the Edinburgh, Mid, West and East Lothian, Falkirk, Dunfermline, Kirkcaldy and Clackmannanshire regions of central Scotland.

At Central Equine Vets we take pride in our dedication to the highest standards in equine veterinary practice. We offer a complete equine veterinary service using state-of-the-art veterinary medical technology, which cannot be matched by any other private practice within the area.

Malcolm Corsar BVM&S Cert. AVP (EP) MRCVS, Matthew Hanks BVSc MRCVS and Samantha Castle BVSc MRCVS have 40 years of combined experience in equine practice, 17 of which have been spent by Malcolm and Matthew working at the world-renowned University of Edinburgh's Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies (R(D)SVS). During this time, both have become client-recognised equine practitioners, with excellent reputations within eastern central Scotland and the surrounding area. Samantha Castle joined the practice in 2015, adding her excellent equine veterinary expertise to the team.

The goal of Central Equine Vets is to help our clients' horses to live long, happy and healthy lives. We believe that a key element to a healthy horse is a great client relationship with an experienced equine veterinary surgeon.
